We partner with our friends at Petritegi Sagardoa, located just outside of San Sebastian in Spain, to source European apple varieties unavailable in commercial quantities in the United States. ## Shacksbury Cider

The Vermonter

The Vermonter is a dry, gin botanical cider made by slowly fermenting apples and adding juniper essence. With its piney nose, the juniper berry is the unifying ingredient in the production of gin, and when these woody yet floral berry notes are added to cider, the resulting beverage could easily pass for a sparkling cocktail. The resulting cider is homegrown but refined.

12 OZ | 6% ABV | 6 x 4 packs/$58 | 1/6 BBL/$112 | 1/2 BBL/$200

Deer Snacks

This year, 2021 marks our fifth vintage of Deer Snacks, and it is better and more wild than ever. Each year we blend wild foraged apples from the Lost Apple Project with orchard fruit to bring you a complex but fun-loving cider. For the design, we partner with a different artist each year to give the new vintage a fresh look. This year, that artist is Eva Claycomb. Tasting Notes: Vermont forest floor, dried leather, herbs, roasted apples

12 OZ | 6% ABV | 6 x 4 packs/$63

Summer calls for something cold and tart that goes down easy. Blackberry Lime is a crowd-pleasing banger that marries apple and berry with a hint of lime and smoked sea salt. Throw a straw in the can or, dare we say it, pour over ice.

12 OZ | 5.5% ABV | 6 x 4 packs/$63

Half Hitch - Imperial Mosaic IPA

Hops climb up twine that's just loosely tied to the trellis with a half hitch knot—and this Imperial IPA is just loosely tied to tradition. The Mosaic hop imparts surprisingly floral aromas instead of the more expected grapefruit-y notes. On the palate, complex layers of flavors might remind you of guava, mango, stone fruit and lemon, unraveling your idea of what an Imperial IPA should be.

9.5% ABV | 16 OZ - 6 x 4 packs/$75 | 50 L Keg/$224

Tough Love Barrel-Aged Imperial Stout 2022

Tough Love is bold but nuanced, an homage of sorts to the traditional Russian Imperial Stouts and the ruling style of Catherine the Great. We construct it with dark roasted malts, malted rye, and oak-smoked wheat, and then banish it in Kentucky bourbon barrels. The aging process smooths out the edges on an otherwise bold statement, and bitterness succumbs to tender strokes of vanilla beans, hints of dried cherries, and new layers revealing themselves with each sip.

Crux Stout

Stouts have a rich, deep and dark history— dating back over 400 years in Europe as a strong porter. Well, forget all that. Yes— this stout is classically dark, but close your eyes and take a sip. You'll likely be surprised by how easy it is on the palate with notes of caramel, chocolate and roasted coffee driven by a wonderfully nuanced blend of dark crystal, black, roasted and chocolate malt. You won't have the patience to save this one for a rainy day.

Broken Barrel Honey Smoke: Reserva

Broken Barrel Whiskey is excited to announce its latest offering of Single Barrel whiskeys – a return of its immensely popular Honey Smoke [2022], with some slight updates to the offering and a sizable increase in its distribution and accessibility.

Building off the 2022 release of the Honey Smoke Rye (101 Proof, 180 Bottles), the new single barrels of Honey Smoke Reserva will feature a Kentucky-distilled American Whiskey, bottled at 110 Proof with a 6-Year age statement. The whiskey has also updated the Oak Bill to blend both Honey Barrel staves with Texas Sotol barrel staves, providing an even deeper, earthier and smokier complexity than last year's release.

The older whiskey, higher proof and longer finishing time (now over 5 months) lend to an all-around masterpiece that promises to be one of the most distinctive tasting spirits every produced. ## Infuse Spirits

Infuse Spirits: Cinnamon Apple

A whiskey-brown spirit with numerous apple slices floating at the top of the bottle. The nose is pure apple, with touches of cinnamon, just like grandma used to bake. Smooth as silk on the body — the vodka is really only evident on the finish, as the sweet, dessert-like character of the product takes center stage.

750 ML | 80 PROOF | 40% ABV | $120/6

Infuse Spirits: Grapefruit

This silver-medal winning infusion hit the scene in March, 2019. Launching as the company's third vodka to have ZERO grams of sugar, and just 64-calories per ounce, its a natural choice for those seeking citrus and flavor. Infuse's Grapefruit vodka has a pink/yellow hue and bright floral-grapefruit peel aromas. The spirit feels astringent and sour on the tongue, opening up into an orchard of fresh flavors. Well-chilled, this makes the world's best greyhound.

Infuse Spirits: Lemon

This gold-medal winning infusion is something to be marveled. The twists and turns of the thinly cut peel make for a perfect artistic visual in this craft vodka, as well speaks to the brand's natural-infusion ethos. Infuse's Lemon vodka has a pale yellow hue and bright candied-lemon peel scent. The spirit feels silky and viscous on the tongue and evokes waxy lemon peel flavors. Well-chilled, this is a bracing martini option.

Infuse Spirits: Peach

A wave of fresh peaches hits you the moment you uncork the bottle. There isn't any artificial peach flavoring here. Instead, you'll find a familiar, pleasant, and sweet true-peach scent. And because of the vodka's corn base, the bright tawny spirit is reminiscent of peach-flavored bourbon—it has a boozy presence, yet a long finish with hints of vanilla and bruised peaches.

Infuse Spirits: Mango Habanero

Fruity, jammy, sweet aromas of peach jam, sweet tea, pickled banana pepper, and mango candy. A medium to full body with a peppery, charming, very long banana pepper and wax pepper finish.

Federico Lugaresi

Gin Primo

Federico Lugaresi, an Emilia-Romagnan restaurateur, budding entrepreneur, and avid gin & tonic drinker, drew on his passion for food and hospitality and set out to create a gin made with the famous local sea salt, Sale di Cervia, collected in a small town on the Adriatic Coast of Emilia Romagna. Salt production here dates back 2,000 years and is used in the production of Prosciutto di Parma and Parmigiano-Reggiano. This prized pinkish-grey sea salt has a particular sweet taste, which compliments the botanicals and gives the gin a beautiful saline finish.

Bordiga

Bordiga Occitan Gin

Gin was first made by Bordiga in 1889, and this gin is still made from the original recipe. In addition to orange and lemon peel, only four main botanicals are used, juniper, angelica, cardamom, and a secret ingredient the distillery harvests locally from the Occitan Alps. The juniper used grows wild in the Maritime Alps, some of the highest mountains in Europe. This combination of altitude and maritime influence enriches the essential oils of the juniper berries, lending a unique flavor.

BCN Gin

BCN Gin

Separate macerations of fresh Mediterranean botanicals and citrus are followed by individual distillations of each element to obtain a pure concentration of flavor, which is the signature of BCN Gin. The botanical signature is based on organic Mediterranean rosemary, thyme, wild fennel, pine shoots, and juniper berries. The fruit component comes from the use of fresh, organic fruits and citrus, with orange, lemon peel, and Catalan figs all playing integral parts. Distiller Stefan Lismond describes BCN Gin as a broader, more horizontal flavor profile compared to the sharper, more vertical flavor profiles of classic London Dry-style gins.

Fred Jerbis Gin 43

Fred Jerbis is an adventurous young producer from the Friuli region of Italy who is more of an herbalist than a distiller. Fred forages, grows and gathers most of his ingredients locally. The primary ingredients in his Gin '43' are juniper, bitter and sweet orange peel, lemon peel, mandarin peel, yarrow, fresh thyme, dried sage leaves, fresh lemon balm, fresh elderflower and mugo pine cone. The straw yellow color of the gin comes from a cold infusion of orange blossom and saffron which is done after the infusion of other fresh and dried botanicals both through steam distillation and hot maceration. The combination of citrus and savory notes lends itself well to sweet vermouth, especially the Negroni!

Bordiga

Bordiga Chiot Montamaro

'Chiot' is a word in the Occitan dialect that describes a summer cabin escape in a mountain meadow that faces the southern sun. It's a word that is common throughout the Piedmontese Alps and conjures the spirit of this amaro. Based on an original recipe from the early 1900s. All infusions are done separately - some take 20 days, and some up to 50 - and then rested in glass or stainless steel for 60 days before blending. Herbs include yarrow, artemesia umbelliformis (white genepy), gentian, and black genepy. More nuanced than many amari and less bitter with red licorice, black currant, and cocoa.

Bordiga Centum Herbis

Centum Herbus' is Latin for 'one hundred herbs' and refers to this type of bitter Alpine herbal liqueur traditionally made and consumed in the Alpine region of France and Italy. The French Chartreuse is another example. This recipe has been in the Bordiga repertoire for at least one hundred years. All infusions are done separately - some take 20 days, and some up to 50 - and then rested in glass or stainless steel for 60 days before blending. Herbs include eucalyptus, thymus serpyllum (often called wild thyme), juniper, quassia bark, and linden leaves. Brilliant green color, with lots of fresh mint, thyme, green grass-y aromas, and a bright balanced finish.

The botanicals are individually infused in pure alcohol derived from wheat, so that the extraction of each component is correct. (No purchased infusions are used.) These infusions are combined, and then blended with the different wines, and sugar is added.

Bordiga Pastis

Since ancient times, anise was used by Mediterranean civilizations as an ingredient in alcoholic beverages. Sometimes anise is combined with other ingredients that characterize its taste, as is the case with the ancient, transgressive Absinthe, favorite drink of the French “poètes maudits bohemian”, or the typical, more modern Provencal Pastis born in the Occitan lands. The wise combination of pure alcohol, clear water from Alpine springs, flowers and fruits, together with several distillations, are the basis of what Bordiga is producing since old time. A note of wise and tasty transgression, today as yesterday.

Alpe

Alpe Amaro

Distilleria Alpe is a small producer of locally-inspired infusions and distillations located in the tiny town of Hône, in the Val d'Aosta, in the far north-west of Italy. An amaro made mostly from more than twenty locally grown herbs, roots and flowers, including gentian, artemisia (genepy), and mint, with the addition of bitter botanicals like rhubarb root. The alpine herbs are picked in August, then dried, then infused in pure alcohol together with the other botanicals for about a month. Part of the liquid is then re-distilled, to give the liqueur a more persistent flavor and to clarify color. It's bottled at 38%, after the addition of spring water and sugar.

Alpe is more bitter than Lys.

Alpe Genepy

Alpe's Genepy is made primarily from the named herb, with the addition of a small quantity of other botanical ingredients such as true cinnamon, oregano, lemon balm, and mint. The alpine herbs are picked in August, then dried and all herbs are infused together in pure alcohol for about a month. Part of the infusion is then re-distilled, to give the liqueur a more persistent flavor and to clarify the color. It's bottled at 38%, after the addition of spring water and sugar. The pale straw color comes naturally from the infusion, no color is added. Genepy is drunk as a digestivo in Italy, and is increasingly being used in craft cocktails, too. Specifically used as an alternative to the scarce Green Chartreuse.

Overproofed at 42%, and with under 5% sugar by volume, Fernet Ferino is drier than you might expect, and foregoes the traditional caramel coloring you'll typically find in most other Fernet. ## Bernardo

Bernardo Abricot Liqueur

Since 1902, the Bernard family has produced a range of liqueurs made mostly from the leaves and flowers of herbs from two high valleys in the Piedmontese Alps. These herbs are picked in the early morning, for peak fragrance, and dried naturally (without heat). Once dry, the herbs are infused in pure alcohol, also without the use of heat, for up to 12 months. For their apricot liqueur, they use the dried kernels or pits, rather than the flesh. This results in a complex sweet and nutty flavor, rather than a juicy or fruity one.

Amara

Amaro Amara

Amaro AMARA is born, selecting the best peel of "Arancia Rossa di Sicilia IGP", which is produced in our orange groves, the water of the springs and the wild herbs of Etna. Neutral spirit (made with beets) steeped in blood oranges and sundry herbs & spices. The oranges dominate, making it a worthy alternative to Cointreau and Triple Sec. The herbs and bitters are not pronounced. Quite sweet. A liqueur that represents the quintessence of Sicily.

Il Mallo

Il Mallo Nocino Liqueur

Il Mallo is generations old producer of the traditional Italian spirit, who produce a number of variations of the famed walnut liqueur. The green walnuts are harvested on June 24th (St. John's day) and are steeped in grain alcohol for 11 months. Once this maceration is complete they are pressed and aged for 18 months in stainless steel. Prior to bottling they add cinnamon, clove, sugar and coriander seed. The resulting spirit is intensely rich, viscous, and slightly sweet with notes of baking spice and fresh walnut. It's texture is bold yet velvety. Truly an artisan spirit and one of the best Nocino we've ever tasted! Just in time for your holiday cocktail needs!

Fred Jerbis

Fred Jerbis Amaro 16

Made with a single alcohol infusion, most of the 16 botanicals used are collected directly from the trees of our lands: lime, mulberry, ash, cypress, birch and black currant. A bitter but fresh aroma, with a herbaceous but balanced persistence. Flavor is herbaceous, balanced, delicate, with intensity but also rounded and balanced, finishing with a pleasant bitterness. Notes of bark, buds, as in a forest when it's just been raining; slightly citrusy on the finish. Bitter finish but rich, and very persistent. Note that the sugar ratio in this Amaro is 15%, about half of that found in many commercial examples.

Fred Jerbis Bitter 34

Bitter 34' liqueur includes 34 botanicals, including angelica, masterwort, thyme, Achillea moschata, Gentiana lutea, hyssop, two different types of artemisia, four types of citrus, and cinchona. All are infused separately, using both hot and cold extraction techniques, then blended and bottled. The color comes from orange blossom (as with all of Fred's spirits, there is no added color.) At 12% sugar, less than half that of larger brands, it is delicately sweet on the finish, with flavors of chamomile, citrus, thyme, vanilla, and almond. It elegantly balances mild bitterness with sweet, citrus, and herbal tones. Perfect for sipping as a spritz, or use in place of Campari to take your Negroni to the next level. Sustainably made.

Fred Jerbis Fernet 25

A fearless vermouth: 16 botanicals from the territory and aging in cherry wood barrels to relive nostalgic scents. ## Istine

Istine Vermouth Di Radda

This joint venture with winemaker Angela Fronti, known for her Chianti production under the the label Istine, and the producers of Borida vermouth, yields an incredible result. Fronti's wine is of course a Sangiovese base (the grape used to make Chianti) and this is a complex sipping vermouth that drinks like a bianco, fruit forward with some floral and fresh herbaceous notes, with a pleasant bitter-sweetness on the finish. The rose color comes from the grape skins, rather than the botanicals or any caramel.

750 ML | 36 PROOF | 18% ABV | $234/6

Fred Alkemil

Fred Alkemil Creme Cassis

Cassis is a traditional French liqueur but in Fred's hands it benefits from an Italian twist. The fruit's source on a mountain behind Polcenigo naturally produces berries with higher acid than when grown in France. Fred works with the natural strength of the botanical creating a vibrant version of cassis with a soft sweetness and delicate palate, though this belies the intensity of the blackcurrant flavor - which is almost boysenberry-like. Ends with a persistent finish that is all flavor, no cloying aftertaste.

Fred Alkamil Ratafia Cherry

Ratafia is a broad term used to describe a sweet alcoholic beverage with a flavoring essence that can resemble cherries. While this particular bottling is naturally sweet from its real cherry juice base, it also shows vibrancy, balance and nuance from the small, and secret percentage of Italian red wine it is married with. This lovely liqueur envelopes the palate with juicy cherry, floral and spice notes and has just a subtle burst of acidity. This is beautiful on its own over ice, with chocolate, or as the key ingredient in a Singapore Sling.

Beurer

Beurer Riesling Trocken 2022

Beurer

Beurer Rose Trocken 2021

Beurer makes a rosé that drinks like biodynamic Gatorade – this wine zings: it is pure energy. It is fresh like a spring garden around 6am just as the overeager sun pokes its gonzo eye above the horizon, pushing away the wet dew. This rosé is a saignée of Trollinger, Portugieser, Zweigelt and Spätburgunder, all farmed biodynamically and fermented with native yeast.

Beurer Rotgut 2022

This is Beurer's red blend. While not as light and bright as the Trollinger, it's still a pretty vivid and energetic wine. The fruits are darker toned, there is a gravelly soil note not unlike Bordeaux or, maybe more appropriately, Loire reds. What else you wanna know? It's ****ing delicious. ## Seahof

Seahof Riesling Kabinett 'Elektrisch' 2023

"Elektrisch" is just what it sounds like—electric! This is a lean and racy Kabinett Riesling with none of the expected sweetness. Even as Seehof's entry level wine, this is sourced mostly from Florian's estate holdings, one of which is sourced from a Grand Cru site in Westhofen.

Beginning with vintage 2020, we have partnered with the artist @ravingcave, selecting two pieces from his 'q series.' After pressing the wine went to a 600l barrel and an old barrique where it stayed until March 2019. We racked and blended these two barrels and also blended in about 10% from the 18 vintage before bottling it.

2Naturkinder Silvaner Pet-Nat 2021

Our Silvaner Pet-Nat comes from one of our old Silvaner vineyards. we usually pick twice in this limestone vineyard. A first, early pick for an acidic batch where the bunches go straight in the press. And a second pick where we destem, crush and leave the grapes on the skins for a couple of days. After being pressed we blend both juices and bottle with 9 g/l sugar left. When fermentation has finished we disgorge warmly by hand the following spring. In 2021 we had severe mildew damage so we added a little juice from the Silvaner in Volkach we usually use for „Fledermaus Weiss“ to compensate. An earthy and deep Pétillant Naturel with citrusy, herbal flavors, refreshing but complex. It also ages really well.

The 2021 Albariño was hand-harvested into 18-kilo bins over the second half of September. Clusters were sorted in the vineyard. The grapes are handled gently and undergo a very slow and low intensity pressing averaging about 4 hours. Once separated from the must, the juice is fermented spontaneously by indigenous yeast with care in temperature controlled stainless steel tank. Two weeks after the fermentation is complete, the wine is separated from the lees and transferred to remain only on its fine lees where it is aged for 7 months with pump-over every 15 days. Malolactic is controlled and only partial.

Cota 45

Cota 45 Agostado Sanlucar De Barrameda Cortado 2018

Agostado is a blend of old, almost extinct varieties Perruno, Uva Rey and Palomino planted on different types of Albariza soils at different altitudes around the Marco de Jerez. Grapes were hand-harvested late September, pressed whole-cluster into two old 500L Jerez botas for spontaneous fermentation without temperature control, and raised in bota for 26 months (under flor the last 4 months) before being bottled with a light filtration. This rare, single vintage, unfortified wine undergoes biological and oxidative aging, like a Palo Cortado from yesteryear.

$321/6 | 750 ML

Cota 45 Miraflores Sanlucar De Barrameda 2021

UBE Miraflores is 100% Palomino from five different plots in Miraflores Alta (3) and Miraflores Baja (2), one of the most celebrated pagos in Sanlucar facing west on three different type of Albariza soils: Lentejuelas, Lustrillo and Tosca Cerrada. Grapes were hand-harvested early September and pressed whole-cluster into old 1,000-1,250L Jerez botas for spontaneous fermentation without temperature control, where the wine completes aging for 8 months, including 4 months of biological aging under flor.

Cota 45 Pandorga Sanlucar De Barrameda 2018

Pandorga is 100% Pedro Ximénez from a single vineyard "La Panesa" in the Pago de Carrascal, grown on Albarizas de Barajuelas facing west. The grapes are hand harvested before becoming overripe, sun-dried by the Asoleado method until they lose half their initial volume (10 days), then pressed whole-cluster into an old 500L Jerez bota for spontaneous fermentation without temperature control, and raised in bota for 12 months before being bottled with a light filtration. With only 15% of the original harvest yielding juice for the wine, this is one of the most unusual and fascinating sweet wines we've ever had from Spain, offering notes of marmalade balanced by refreshing acidity.

Montebuena

Montebuena Roija 2020

Labastida's viticultural records go back several centuries, but the best evidence of its winemaking history is its "lagares rupestres" – man-made formations, carved into large rocks in the vineyards, consisting of three holes where the grapes were pressed to obtain the juice prior to fermentation. Montebuena displays a brilliant deep ruby red color. Aromas of juicy fruit combine with a spicy vanilla bouquet. Smooth and fruity in the mouth, with some well-integrated secondary nuances. Full-flavored with a persistent, pleasant finish.

Ameztoi Rubentis

After handpicking, hondarrabi zuri and hondarrabi beltza grapes are combined for destemming; the white and red grapes are worked together, not separately. After direct pressing, fermentation with indigenous yeast occurs in stainless steel at 15°C for 20 days. Towards the end of alcoholic fermentation, the tanks are closed to preserve the naturally occurring carbonation, which is the preferred style of Getaria. The tanks are then kept chilled to near freezing before bottling, which preserves the wine's delicate, effervescent character and signature mousse. These attributes are unattainable through shortcuts such as force-carbonation, which Ameztoi has never employed. Grape varietal: 50% Hondarribi Beltza and 50% Hondarribi Zuri.

Jean-Paul Brun Domaine des Terres

Domaine des Terres Dorees Pinot Noir Bourgogne 2022

100% Pinot Noir. Jean-Paul Brun's estate is in the rolling hills of Charnay in the southern Beaujolais, where the main grape of the area and his property too is of course Gamay. But the clay-limestone soils here are friendly to other varieties, particularly Pinot Noir (as well as Chardonnay and Roussanne, both of which he grows here); Jean-Paul began planting Pinot in 1991 and now has a total of 5 hectares. The farming is organic, the harvest by hand and the sorting of the bunches meticulous. The vinification is traditional Burgundian: the grapes are destemmed and fermented with native yeasts and without sulfur in concrete vats. Maceration lasts around 3 weeks. The wine is aged in concrete--with an occasional touch of large old oak vat--and bottled with a light, non-sterile filtration and minimal sulfur. The Pinot Noir is classified simply as Bourgogne AC.

Domaine des Terres Dorees Fleurie 2022

100% Gamay. Jean-Paul farms 6 hectares in Fleurie, all of it in the celebrated lieu-dit of Grille Midi, a south-facing amphitheater of vines on poor, sandy, decomposed-granite soils over hard granite rock. This site yields wines of great concentration, power and longevity. There are two Terres Dorées bottlings from this vineyard: a straight Fleurie and a "Grille Midi". The key differences are vine age and the aging of the wines. The Fleurie is from the younger vines, which are around 40 years old, while the Grille Midi vines are 65 years and up. The wines are vinified the same way, as are all of Jean-Paul's wines: the hand-harvested bunches are destemmed and fermented with native yeasts and without sulfur in concrete tanks. Maceration for the regular Fleurie is 3-4 weeks (vs. 6 weeks for the Grille Midi). The Fleurie is aged in concrete for 6-8 months, while the Grille Midi spends that time in foudres instead; both wines are bottled with a light, non-sterile filtration and minimal sulfur.

Sorelle Bronca

Sorelle Bronca Particella 68 2020

The Bronca Sisters' best vineyard is called Particella 68, as is their reserve wine obtained from that vineyard. The site is perhaps 500 yards from the edge of the Cartizze boundary, the most prized growing area in the Prosecco zone. Done by single fermentation from juice directly to sparkling wine, this process retains more of the classic pear aroma that makes Prosecco distinctive. The '68' is similar in aroma and flavor to the regular bottling, but with the volume turned up. 90% Glera, 10% Bianchetta and Perera.

Sorelle Bronca Prosecco Brut

Instead of two separate fermentations, (grape juice to still wine, then still wine to sparkling wine), the Bronca Sister's Prosecco grapes are pressed and the juice is held at very low temperatures and fermented directly to sparkling wine. ## Musella

Musella Amarone della Valpolicella

The bunches, selected and collected in crates, are placed in a special ventilated room to be dried according to the famous drying process (Appassimento). The grapes lose at least 35% of their original weight, thus concentrating sugars, aromatic components and noble tannins. In January, the soft pressing takes place and the fermentation starts at low temperature (13°- 17°); the long maceration allows maximum extraction of the fruit. The wine remains for 24 months in French oak tonneaux and in larger barrels (3500 and 5000 liters); after bottling, it remains to refine at least a year before being released. ## Col di Luna

Col di Luna produces sparkling wines at the foot of the Dolomites, with a family tradition and preference for the brut style. ## Scribe

Scribe Atlas West Cabernet Sauvignon 2019

Before Scribe even had a name, we knew this remote site atop Atlas Peak in southern Napa Valley was where we wanted to grow Cabernet Sauvignon. The cold, bright mornings give way to sunny afternoons, but the vines are spared from the sun's heat by gentle breezes coming off the San Pablo Bay. The soils here are dominated by red volcanic material with lots of flatrock, providing exceptional drainage. Yields are small and the fruit is intense and expressive, tasting of the mountain's stoney red earth and dense thickets of California chaparral. We are gentle in the cellar to preserve this special terroir, restraining the use of new oak, fermenting with native yeast and bottling the wine unfinned and unfiltered. It is Napa mountainside Cabernet through the Scribe lens, still tasting of its place above the fog line - bright, wild and pure. Tasting notes: plum, sage, and violet.

Scribe Carneros Pinot Noir

We've been making this wine since 2007 – our first vintage. Its primary fruit source is nearly 30-year-old California heritage clone Pinot Noir (Martini) planted in the breezy, loamy heart of Carneros. We ferment with native yeast in steel and concrete – about 30% whole cluster – and age 7 months in neutral oak with minimal intervention. It's a vibrant, fruit driven expression of Carneros and a favorite of early Scribe followers. Tasting notes: alpine strawberry, almond blossom, and coriander.

Verjus (vert jus) which translates to 'green juice' in French is a vibrant, non-alcoholic, culinary ingredient made from Scribe's Estate Pinot Noir grapes. They harvest the grapes in the summer halfway through ripening, before they accumulate too much sugar, then cold-press and bottle. The resulting juice is a pleasantly tart, delicately floral, and versatile kitchen essential. Amazing as a cocktail ingredient or anywhere you would use citrus or vinegar in the kitchen, from braising to finishing dishes for a jolt of brightness.

Saintsbury

Saintsbury Pratt Vineyard Pinot Noir 2021

This wine is deeper than the vineyard designate with notes of red plum, cherry licorice, and kirsch wrapped in violets and dried lavender. The same red fruit continues to the palate and comes alive with intense, high-toned vibrancy. Known for being a drought year with challenging growth conditions, with the exception of vineyards close to the the Sonoma Coast that experienced the cooling pattern of the marine layer, elongating the growing season. 50% Cl. 828, 25% Pommard, 25% Cl.

Saintsbury Sangiacomo Vineyard Carneros Chardonnay 2022

The Sangiacomo family has been farming in Sonoma for over 100 years, and we've been making wines with them since we began in 1981. Well known for their attention to detail, the result is a complex and vibrant Chardonnay reflective of the Carneros region. Golden color, juicy pear and ripe citrus notes with a gingery background spice. Round without being overly rich, warm mandarin character is punctuated by fresh grass and pithy finish.

Saintsbury

Saintsbury Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir 2022

The biggest range of site exposure, elevation, soil, and climate of any of our single variety bottlings. "The most complete wine in our portfolio", according to winemaker Tim Colla. It takes an exceptional amount of tinkering and finesse to blend 5+ Single-Vineyard ferments into a harmonious bottling. Vibrant, floral, and layered with juicy red fruit, citrus and bergamot-like tea aromatics, and a backbone of silky tannin and gentle spice. A generous palate, lively acidity, and sumptuous texture.

Saintsbury Sundawg Ridge Pinot Noir

Drought conditions and high temperatures inland yielded smaller canopies with greater concentration and intensity. The bulb collects with notes of dried strawberry, cherry cola, vanilla bean, and white pepper; with an added layer of complexity layer of juniper, chaparral, and cinnamon. Sitting above the morning fog at 240 foot elevation, only twelve miles from the Pacific ocean, the vineyard showcases classic Goldridge soils.
